Vimy Memorial Wall

Plaque order form

Vickers Vimy G-EAOU, winner of the 1919 UK–Australia air race and the first aircraft to be flown from the UK to Australia, was displayed from 1958 through 2022 in a purpose-built pavilion at Adelaide Airport. The pavilion was floored with bricks. When the Vimy was moved to its current display in the passenger terminal, Adelaide Airport donated these historic bricks to the Museum.

The Vimy pavilion at Adelaide Airport, soon after it opened.

You are invited to commemorate yourself, your family, a loved one or an organisation with an inscribed brick in our Vimy Memorial Wall, situated in the Museum's Hangar 1. You can reserve your commemorative brick for the tax-deductible amount of $1,000 by completing this form. All funds go to the SAAM Foundation to support the ongoing development of the Museum.
